

Angela Hantoumakos

Angela Hantoumakos has over thirty years of experience in finance and strategic planning, and has held senior roles in both public companies and the not for profit sector. She currently holds the role of Chief Financial Officer with the Ontario Medical Oncology Association. She has previously held positions with Bombardier Aerospace as VP Finance, Deloitte Consulting and William Osler Health Centre where she held the position of CFO. Angela's present and past Board affiliations include the Artist's Health Centre Foundation and My Sister's Place.