

Michael Dwyer

A native of Hudson, Quebec, Michael's business career spanned 27 years in the Canadian investment industry as a senior fixed income sales representative with several of Canada's leading brokerage firms. During his tenure at BMO Nesbitt Burns, Michael was active in the charitable sector through his involvement with Set Sail For Hope, an annual fundraiser that mixes Toronto's business, culinary and yachting elite. Set Sail For Hope exists to support one charity, Camp Trillium – overnight and day camps that bring together children with cancer and their families. During his tenure as senior fund raiser for Set Sail for Hope, Michael was successful in raising ever increasing sponsorships for Camp Trillium. In 1997, after 18 years with BMO Nesbitt Burns, Michael, his wife Cathy, and two young sons embarked on a 5 year live aboard sailing adventure of the eastern U.S seaboard, the Caribbean, South America and all points in between. Upon their return in 2003, the Dwyer family settled in Oakville where Michael continues to enjoy skiing, sailing, coaching his son's hockey teams and trading the markets.
